

Let's Practice!

Can you use the new vocabulary?

Instructions: Read the definitions. Select the correct answer. Practice saying the complete sentences aloud with your partner. Correct each other.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1) To make a big mistake is to ...
a) bring it
b) blast it
c) blow it | 4) If something is extremely beautiful in an eye-catching way it is ...
a) spectacle
b) spectacular
c) spectator |
| 2) To end a romantic relationship is to ... someone.
a) drop
b) damp
c) dump | 5) To interpret something in a particular way is to ... something.
a) construe
b) misconstrue
c) construct |
| 3) If something is fascinating and able to hold people's interest it is ...
a) captivating
b) captivate
c) captivated | |

Let's Practice!

Sally gives Peter some advice.

Instructions: Proofread the sentences. Correct the mistake. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. She must have has some inclination.

2. I told her she should have tell me earlier.

3. So I can have been part of the decision process.

4. I wouldn't have did that.

5. I may had just blown it again!
